Portfolio Review

- February -

Group Show

Hayward PhotoCentral

The theme of my portfolio is 'Landscape of Antarctica'. The works presented represent an internal journey that each artist has experienced, and each individual's interpretation of 'the transparency of the craft'.

Though my travel to Antarctica was a few years ago, this is my first attempt to present the work I completed there in a fashionable and coherent manner. I've chosen 4 images to display in the Gallery in an 11"x14" format. These images are part of a set of 15 images, presented together in the portfolio. The images in the portfolio are in a smaller format, thus they invite the viewer to come closer, and lead along an intimate travel experience in a far away land of ice, so immense and yet so fragile.

San Francisco Open Studio

- Weekend 2 -

Saturday October 13th, 11AM-6PM

Sunday October 14th, 11AM-4PM

After participating in several group shows, I've decided to take the plunge and do 'an open studio' - though the show will not be held at my studio. I'll be showing some of my pictures of Antarctica and Tibet as well as images taken closer to home.

Comment: THANK YOU for stopping by and making my first open studio a pleasing and rewarding experience. I was able to contribute over $100 to F.S.Key School to support their library and afterschool program!

435 Broadway Studio (San Francisco, CA)

Saturday October 20th, 7PM-2AM

A display of selected images from the series "Landscape of Antarctica".
